WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 8.

WHY PRESIDENT BUCHANAN REMAINED A BACHELOR.—In an elegant mansion near the Arlington house, in this city, reside two ladies of the olden aristocracy—Mrs. Freeman and her sister, Miss Coleman. About the latter lady a little romance clings which makes her interesting. She was the second love and the affianced bride of the late President Buchanan, his first love having died in her youth, and until he met Miss Coleman he was almost a recluse from ladies' society. He was engaged to her when sent abroad as American minister to the court of St. James in London. At that time Miss Coleman resided in New York. He returned to this country on visit, and on the evening arrived Miss Coleman was giving a grand entertainment. He was fatigued, and instead of dressing and paying his respects to her immediately, retired to his room, and early next morning called to see her. She had taken offence at his not calling the evening before, and refused to see him, and they never met again. What regrets were felt the world has never known, but many an angry impulse has wrecked the happiness of men and women beyond repairation.—Washington Correspondence of the Chicago Journal.
